

I strongly oppose RM-10869. Keeping the CW licensing requirement will not benefit the future of amateur operators. CW should be an option for those that choose to use it. Not using CW, will not make a person less capable of being a good operator. I support ARRL's RM-10867 proposal of dropping the CW license requirement. This will greatly benefit the future of amateur radio!!